What is Over the Edge?

Over the Edge is an exclusive opportunity for individuals to take their support of athletes of Special Olympics Georgia to new heights. In exchange for raising money, participants will earn the rare experience of stepping Over the Edge and rappelling down Overlook III Building in Vinings! This event is a unique combination of thrill and philanthropy!

Who can be an Edger?

Anyone with a desire to support a worthy cause and enough courage to step Over the Edge is welcomed to participate! There are a few requirements: Participants must be 16 years old or over (everyone under 18 needs parent/guardian to sign a waiver), between 100 and 300lbs, and raise a minimum of $1,000. No prior experience is necessary- just enough courage to step Over the Edge.

Special Olympics Georgia Information

Show donors that you aren't rappelling just for the fun of it, but because you are also trying to help a great cause! Use some of these facts to explain what donations will be supporting.

- Special Olympics Georgia provides year-round sports training and athletic competition in a variety of sports for children and adults with intellectual disabilities.
- It costs approximately $100 to send one athlete to one state game! Special Olympics Georgia provides all services at no charge to its participants.
- Special Olympics Georgia has been an organization since 1970 with its first games being held in Atlanta with about 500 athletes.
- Special Olympics Georgia has more than 24,000 volunteers across the state.
- Special Olympics Georgia serves over 27,000 athletes each year!
- Not only are we helping individuals with intellectual disabilities in Georgia, over 1.7 million athletes participate in Special Olympics activities in 150 countries!
- We also provide opportunities to improve health and fitness through dental, vision, feet, hearing and general health screenings. Physicians and healthcare professionals provide these services at no cost to Special Olympics Georgia athletes at our State Games.
- Special Olympics Georgia provides programming for individuals with and without intellectual disabilities through Unify Georgia in schools throughout Georgia. Athletes with intellectual disabilities pair with persons without disabilities and form teams for training and competition. Unified Sports integrates Special Olympics Georgia athletes with other athletes to build self-esteem and increase understanding of persons with different abilities.
- Young Athletes, an innovative sports play program designed for early childhood intervention, seeks to strengthen self-esteem and physical development for children with intellectual disabilities ages 2-7 years old.

Steps to Becoming a Successful Edger

Step #1

To participate in this event go to www.overtheedgeatlanta.org

Step #2

You will need to register for the event on our website, which costs $25. This $25 will count towards your $1,000 fundraising goal. After registering for Over the Edge, you will need to create a fundraising page. Take advantage of this opportunity to personalize your page to you. You can upload a picture, set your fundraising goal, and include message to your visitors.

Step #3

Solicit and collect pledges to support your heroic fundraising adventure! Use your fundraising page links to email it to your family and friends, or to put it on social media. You can also copy and paste your specific URL for your fundraising page into emails, flyers, social media, etc. Let your family, friends, and co-workers know of your commitment to step Over the Edge for Special Olympics Georgia and how they can help you to accomplish your personal goals. Each Edger will need to collect the minimum of $1,000 to participate. The most efficient way to have individuals support your efforts is through the quick, easy, and secure manner online; however, they are more than welcome to donate offline (just make sure the money gets turned into the SOGA office so we can add it to your fundraising). You can be creative on how you ask for your fundraising money. You can ask people to help support an athlete at one state games which is $100, or you can ask them to sponsor you going down one story ($$1,000/20 = \50). Be creative on how you ask people!

Remember that Special Olympics Georgia is here to help you in your fundraising efforts. We want you to get to be able to go Over the Edge. If after reviewing the Edger Toolkit you need more personalized support, let us know!

Step #4

Even though the fundraising minimum for Over the Edge is $1,000, that does not mean that you have to stop there! Over the Edge is a fun way to raise as much funds and awareness for Special Olympics Georgia as possible. You will captivate the attention of Atlanta by going Over the Edge, now stun them with the amount of money you can raise for a good cause! Once you have secured at least the minimum of $1,000 to participate, you will be contacted to schedule your rappel time.

Step #5

Have fun! You've worked extremely hard to reach the minimum event goal or even to surpass it. It's almost time for you to lean back, step Over the Edge, take in the incredible view, and rappel 22 stories in support of the 27,000+ Special Olympics Georgia athletes.

Who Do You Know?

The key to building a successful fundraising campaign is asking the right people for support. Think about everyone whose lives you touch and ask them to join you in supporting the athletes of Special Olympics Georgia.

Your list can be overwhelming at first so use this chart to help you identify people that you know and organize them into categories. Start with the easiest people to reach- your family and friends. Next ask acquaintances and services providers. Before you know it, you will have a complete list of people to ask!

	Take a deep breath, because you are really going Over the Edge!	TOTAL: $1000+

Fundraising 101

The #1 reason people give is because they are asked. Don't be shy, the worst someone will do is tell you no, at best, they will give you more than you expected!

Be excited! People will feed off of your enthusiasm.

Know your facts. Be able to talk about Special Olympics Georgia in terms of how these funds will make a difference. People give because they are asked, because they care and because the person doing the asking is enthusiastic and passionate about their cause.

Fundraising Ideas

- ❖ Floor sponsors and donations
 - Divide the number of floors into your minimum amount raised
 - $1000/20 floors, $50 pledge per floor
- ❖ Foot sponsors
 - Same as floors, except use the height of the building in feet
 - □ $1000/200 feet, $5 per foot
- ❖ Corporate matching
 - Many companies will match charitable contributions their employees make. See if your company will match your donations or the total funds you raise. If they only match employee giving, get as many of your co-workers to give as possible.
- ❖ Corporate donations
 - Don't forget you can ask area businesses to support you.
- ❖ Office campaigns
 - You can put together some mini-fundraisers to benefit your cause
 - Bake sale – sell cookies at your desk.
 - BBQ fundraiser (charge for lunch or ask for donations)
 - Baskets – keep a donation plate on your desk or in a common area
 - Challenge: have a peer in another department go Over the Edge with you and see who can raise the most money, or whoever raises the most has to go Over the Edge. For execs, challenge other departments or challenge an exec from another company!

The possibilities are endless. Remember, be creative and have fun, it's for charity for crying out loud!

Helpful Hints-

- Always follow up! People will appreciate the reminder. Include fun facts and an update on how close you are to reaching your goal.
- Send a thank you letter, note, or message to your donors. For your sponsors, consider including a crazy picture of you from the event so they remember you next year.

Quick and Easy Ideas to Increase Your Fundraising Efforts

- Add the event logo to your email signature. You can also include a hyper-link to your personal fundraising website and encourage everyone to visit it and support your efforts.
- Social media is a great way to self-promote and connect with people who you would normally not be in regular contact with. Always be sure to include a link to your website for anyone interested in or able to support you. Facebook, Twitter, and Blogging are all great tools. Also, check to see if your employer will include you in the company's electronic Newsletter(s).
- Send a letter or e-mail out to all of your contacts. Letters take a bit more time but can be really effective at letting people know how serious you are about reaching your goal. Conversely, some people you know may prefer the ease of simply clicking on a link in an email to donate online. Many people will need more than one request to donate, so it's okay to send your request to donate via snail mail and email.

Fundraisers

Fundraisers are really just excuses to have a party! Think of something that you and your friends and/or family like to do, and make it a benefit to help you to get to be able to go Over the Edge in April.

Key Elements

Start planning early

- Promote your event
- Use social media and e-vites to spread the word quickly and cheaply
- Be sure to send out reminders as your event approaches
- Tell each guest to bring another friends or two
- Decide if you'll be charging a flat rate or simply asking for a suggested donation
- Include a silent auction or raffle to increase donations at your event

Date

Dear Friends and Family,

I am writing to you today to let you know that I have pledged to step "Over the Edge" for the athletes of Special Olympics Georgia. On May 5th, 2018 I will muster the courage to stand atop of the Overlook III Building in Vinings and then rappel the 22 stories to the ground.

While I am not asking you to join me in rappelling the building, I do need your help in order to make it onto the rooftop. In addition to pledging to step "Over the Edge", I have also committed to raising a minimum of $1,000. You are probably thinking that this endeavor is a little on the crazy side, but I am dedicated to challenging myself just as the athletes of Special Olympics do on a daily basis. The fear that I will experience is only temporary while the positive impact on our community and this organization will last a lifetime.

Making a contribution towards my campaign has never been easier. You can show your support by visiting my personal fundraising web-page at _____ . Donating through this website is simple, fast, and completely secure. It is also the most efficient way to support my efforts. If you prefer, you can also send me a check or money order made payable to Special Olympics Georgia. Or you can send it directly to Special Olympics Georgia stating the check is to go to Over the Edge for _____. (Special Olympics Georgia, Attn: Ally Jordan, 6046 Financial Drive, Norcross, GA 30071) Any financial support would be greatly appreciated; no gift is too small. Please consider helping me reach my personal fundraising goal of $.

By supporting my efforts, you will be inspiring greatness in the lives of countless Special Olympics Georgia athletes. In addition to ensuring the continuing participation in year round sport training and athletic competition, as well as receiving much needed health screenings, exploring many new opportunities in roles of leadership, you are facilitating a global movement for inclusion. Your support is instrumental in bringing all persons with intellectual disabilities into conditions whereby they are accepted, respected, and give the chance to become productive citizens.

Thank you in advance for any financial assistance that you can lend to my heroic fundraising!!
